POSTOFFICE MEN IN ALBUQUERQUEGathering of Postal Inspectors and Superintendents for Purpose of Investigating Railway Mail Service.

There is an unofficial gathering of postal inspectors and superintendents in the city today, four well-known men in the railway mail service happening into the city at the same time, still P. Taft, superintendent of the railway mail service with headquarters in St. Louis, has been in the city the past five days and expects to remain until the first of May. He was joined today by F. H. Moore, chief clerk of the railway mail clerks with headquarters at Los Angeles, and R. H. Alcos of Chivas and W. A. Golden of Denver, both inspectors upon the Denver division, which includes Albuquerque in its operations. Mr. Moore is here for the purpose of holding the regular examination of railway mail clerks, which occurs at varying intervals of several months in this city. The examinations are not for the purpose of selecting new men but as a memory test of the efficiency of clerks already employed, and includes among other things questions upon the change of routes, post-office names, new towns and methods.

COACH HUTCHINSON IS INTRODUCEDMan Who Will Direct Destinies of Athletics at University Next Year Speaks to the Students.

R. F. Hutchinson, recently appointed director of athletics for the University of New Mexico, made his bow to the students and faculty at the institution on the hill during assembly hour this morning. Mr. Hutchinson was introduced by President E. McQueen Gray. The new director made a twenty-minute address to the students, outlining what he hopes to accomplish during the coming year. Mr. Hutchinson was given the glad hand all around by students and members of the faculty. Following his address brief remarks were made by Dean Hodgin, Prof. Clarke, Prof. Connell, Charles Lembi, manager of the last football team, and A. B. Seder, captain of this year's baseball club. Dr. Gray then brought the meeting to a fitting close by making a brief address in which the relations between Mr. Hutchinson and everybody connected with the university would be most pleasant.

After the assembly gathering, Dr. Gray entertained at luncheon in the Alvarado hotel in honor of Mr. Hutchinson. Those present at the luncheon were Dr. Gray and Mr. Hutchinson of the faculty, Messrs. B. Gladding, Wicks Miller, A. B. Seder, Charles Lembi and Frank Ringland of the student body.

ALBUQUERQUE MAN
TO VISIT MADEROElfego Baca Leaves for El Paso to Confer With Insur-recto General; Diaz Must Resign, He Says.

For the purpose of holding a conference with General Madero, insurrection leader, Attorney Elfego Baca left this morning for El Paso. Mr. Baca recently returned to Albuquerque from a visit to Madero's camp and says that Madero has more than 3,000 followers in one bunch, there being several other contingent armies of almost equal strength.

Madero will stand pat for his rights, said Mr. Baca today. "If Diaz does not agree to resign," he continued, "and appoint a nominee of Madero to the vice presidency while an election is being called, and does not relinquish fourteen of the Mexican states to the insurgents, a determined war will be begun."

Mr. Baca is accompanied to El Paso by Mrs. Baca, who will visit relatives in the city while he confers with Madero.
